

Inquiry Day 4

As mentioned on Friday, the fourth day of the Inquiry was spent by the Inspector and interested parties touring the local area taking in the proposed Waterside Park site, as well as a large number of viewpoints overlooking the site from all directions. Mercifully the weather was kind to the local community, offering splendid views of the early summer Kent countryside in all its glory.